Article XVIII - Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Society shall be the calendar year.

Article XIX - Amendments

Section 1. Amendments to Bylaws - An amendment to these Bylaws may be proposed and submitted to the Board of Directors in writing by a member of the Board or by petition signed by 20 members of the Society. After general discussion at a Board meeting, the proposed amendment shall be distributed to each member of the Society 30 calendar days in advance of the Society's regularly scheduled annual business meeting. The amendment shall be effective upon approval by a simple majority vote of the members at such meeting where a quorum exists. If a quorum cannot be found at the annual business meeting, the vote shall remain open until 5% of the membership has approved the amendments.

Section 2. Amendments to Corporate Charter - The corporate charter may be amended in the manner set out in the laws and regulations of the State or District in which this corporation is incorporated.

Article XX - Indemnity

Section 1. General Indemnification - Any person made a party to any action, suit, or proceeding, by reason of the fact that he or she, their testator, or intestate representative is or was a Director, Officer, or employee of the Society, or of any organization in which the Director, Officer, or employee served as such at the request of the Society, shall be indemnified by the Society against reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in connection with the defense of such action, suit, or proceedings, or in connection with any appeal therein, except in relation to matters as to which it shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding, or in connection with any appeal therein that such Officer, Director, or employee has engaged in conduct which: (I) violates criminal law; (ii) is engendered by malice or ill will; or, (iii) which constitutes unlawful discrimination or sexual harassment. Assuming that a Director, Officer, or employee of the Society has acted reasonably and within the scope of his/her delegated authority, the Society will fully defend the Director, Officer, or employee and hold him/her harmless from any liability. However, the Society is not responsible for, nor will it pay any damages for, any punitive damages assessed against such Director, Officer, or employee. Nevertheless, the Society will defend at its cost and expense those Director(s), Officer(s), or employee(s) against whom punitive damages are sought.

Section 2. Caveat to Indemnification - The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any Officer or Director or employee may be entitled apart from the provisions of this section.

Section 3. Limits to Indemnification - The amount of indemnity to which any Officer or any Director may be entitled shall be fixed by the Board of Directors, except that in the case where there is no disinterested majority of the Board available, the amount shall be fixed by arbitration pursuant to the then-existing rules of the American Arbitration Association.

Article XXI - Procedure

Procedures and other items, not specified in these Bylaws or by action of the meeting, shall be in accordance with the Pocket Manual of Rules of Order by Henry M. Robert.

 - (5) Sell any securities or other property for less than adequate consideration in money or money's worth to;
 - (6) Engage in any other transactions which result in substantial diversions of its income or corpus to any Officer, member of the Board of Directors or substantial contributor to the Society.

The prohibitions contained in Article XXII, Section 2 (c) do not mean to imply that the Society may take such loans, payments, sales, or purchases to anyone else, unless such authority be given or implied by other provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws.

Article XXIII - Distribution on Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Society, the Board of Directors shall distribute the assets and accrued income to one or more organizations in accordance with the laws and regulations of the state or district in which it is incorporated as determined by the Board, but which organization or organizations shall meet the limitations prescribed in Article XXII, Section (1)(a) and (2) inclusive.

Original Bylaws adopted by the Steering Committee at its fourth meeting in Washington, D.C. on May 13, 1975.

The Adoption of the Bylaws by the Steering Committee was originally ratified by the Board of Directors and the Bylaws were formally adopted on behalf of the Society by the Board at its first meeting, in Washington, D.C., on May 13, 1975.

A minor amendment to the Bylaws was initiated by the Board of Directors in 1986, approved by unanimous vote of the membership in 1987, and adopted by the Board of Directors at a regular meeting in November, 1987.

A second amendment was initiated by the Board in 1990, placed before the membership for vote in May, 1991, and approved in May, 1991.

A third amendment was initiated by the Board of Directors in April, 1993, approved by unanimous vote of the membership in May, 1993, and adopted by the Board of Directors at a regular meeting in July, 1993.

Two technical amendments to align sections of the Bylaws were initiated by the Board of Directors in September, 1996, approved by the membership in December, 1996, and adopted by the board of Directors at the next Board meeting in March, 1997.

A fifth amendment was initiated by the Board of Directors in June, 2001, placed before the membership for vote in July, 2001, and approved in June, 2002.

A sixth amendment was initiated by the Board of Directors in June, 2009, placed before the membership for vote in June, 2009, and approved in October, 2009.

A seventh amendment was initiated by the Board of Directors in May, 2013, placed before the membership for vote in May, 2013, and approved in May, 2013.

An eighth amendment was initiated by the Board of directors in October 2014, placed before the membership for a vote in October 2014, and approved in December 2014.
